Jonathan Holling is a top international three-day event rider who has competed through the Advanced and (now) CCI***** level, including Burghley, Kentucky Three Day Event, and the World Cup Eventing Finals. Along with his wife Jennifer Holling, who also rides at the upper levels of eventing, he runs Holling Eventing in Ocala, Florida. He wears many hats including being an upper-level competitor, trainer, coach, and event organizer.

He has also served as the Area IV Young Rider Team coach, chair of the USEA Cross-Country Safety Subcommittee, and vice chair of the USEF Eventing Sport Committee. Jon began his upper level journey as a working student for Peter Gray and has trained with David O'Connor and Leslie Law. For the past 20 years has been a mainstay at the top levels, competing in both North America and Europe. He won the 2012 Bromont CCI*** and has been a member of the Nations Cup team at Boekelo. He has brought several partners to the top levels of the sport, including Prairie Schooner, Lion King, Tell You Why, and Direct Merger.

IEA is looking forward to hosting Jon Holling for the first time! Great with horses and riders of all levels, Jon is excellent at focusing on the basics and good building blocks.
